

Consultation opens on proposals for former Manchester retail park

Manchester City Council and the Government Property Agency (GPA) have opened a joint consultation around emerging plans for the former retail site.