

Consultation outcome: Proposed changes to how smoking-attributable risk is calculated

Current calculations for smoking-attributable risks are based on a single study from 1982 to 1988. In this document we propose a new calculation and data source.