

Coronavirus action plan launched

The action plan provides information on the government's plans to contain the spread of coronavirus and what action could be taken if the virus does spread.