

Coronavirus support measures help 65,000 businesses in Scotland

New data published today reveals more than 65,000 businesses in Scotland benefited from over £2.3 billion of support through government-supported loan schemes