

Corporate report: Greening government commitments 2016 to 2017 annual report

This is the sixth annual report of progress by government departments against the greening government commitments (GGCs).

The Greening Government Commitments \(GGCs\) are targets for reducing the negative effects that government's estates and operations have on the environment.

The previous annual reports are also available.