

Councils pilot net zero projects with £19 million government backing

Local Net Zero Accelerator pilots will help combined authorities deliver green initiatives such as retrofitting homes and installing solar panels.