

County Durham man sentenced for illegal waste activity

A man has been sentenced for operating an illegal waste site and burning waste on the land, following an investigation by the Environment Agency.