

Court shuts down two connected companies which received more than £1 million in fraudulent Covid loans

Winding-up orders made against companies accused of loan fraud