

COVID-19 rapid testing made easier for partially sighted people

New app and video-call support service with specially trained NHS Test and Trace staff will help partially sighted people to take lateral flow tests at home.