

COVID-19 vaccines have prevented 7.2 million infections and 27,000 deaths

New analysis suggests the vaccination programme has prevented between 6.4 and 7.9 million infections and 26,000 and 28,000 deaths in England alone.