

COVID-19 vaccines have prevented thousands of deaths in older adults, new data shows

Analysis carried out by Public Health England suggests that the COVID-19 vaccination programme prevented 6,100 deaths in England up to the end of February 2021.