

Cryptocurrency advice firm shut down after investors lost money and director failed to keep proper accounts

Amey Finance Academy Ltd wound-up at the High Court following investigations into the company's trading by the Insolvency Service