

CS leads delegation to attend second meeting on Mainland and Hong Kong anti-epidemic work

The Chief Secretary for Administration, Mr John Lee, led representatives of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region (HKSAR) to Shenzhen today (November 24) to attend the second meeting on the anti-epidemic work of the Mainland and Hong Kong tomorrow (November 25), in order to press ahead with the resumption of quarantine-free travel between the Mainland and Hong Kong in a gradual and orderly manner.

HKSAR representatives who will attend the meeting include the Secretary for Food and Health, Professor Sophia Chan; the Secretary for Innovation and Technology, Mr Alfred Sit; the Under Secretary for Constitutional and Mainland Affairs, Mr Clement Woo; and representatives of the Department of Health, the Office of the Government Chief Information Officer, the Security Bureau, the Transport and Housing Bureau and other related bureaux and departments.