

CS to visit Beijing

The Chief Secretary for Administration, Mr Matthew Cheung Kin-chung, will depart for Beijing on Monday morning (September 3) to officiate at the inauguration ceremony of Tsinghua University, Executive Master of Public Administration Programme for the Project of Hong Kong Public Administrative Talents.

During the visit, Mr Cheung will also meet Mainland Government officials, senior management of Tsinghua University and advisors of the Project.

Mr Cheung will return to Hong Kong in the evening of the same day. During his absence, the Secretary for the Environment, Mr Wong Kam-sing, will act as the Acting Chief Secretary for Administration.