

Culture Secretary to drive forward growth of women's sport

The Culture Secretary will today bring together industry leaders responsible for delivering the recommendations made in the Review of Women's Football.