

Cumbrian firm building for success after Sellafield contract win

William King Construction to expand training schemes and employ more people after winning contracts with the Programme and Project Partners.