The Commissioner of Customs and Excise, Mr Chan Tsz-tat, yesterday (March 26) called on the General Administration of Customs of the People's Republic of China (GACC) in Beijing and met with the Minister of the GACC, Ms Sun Meijun, to exchange views on deepening the co-operation between Mainland Customs and Hong Kong Customs. Mr Chan expressed his gratitude to the GACC for their support for the work of Hong Kong Customs. He also toured the facilities of Beijing Customs and the Beijing Daxing International Airport to learn about the local customs clearance procedures and the way to use technology to enhance clearance efficiency.

Mr Chan continued his visits in Guangzhou and Shenzhen today (March 27). He separately met with the Director General of the Guangdong Sub-Administration of the GACC, Mr Li Kuiwen; the Director General in Huangpu Customs District, Mr Jin Hai; the Director General in Guangzhou Customs District, Mr Li Quan; and the Director General in Shenzhen Customs District, Mr Zheng Jugang, to exchange views on issues of mutual concern. He also visited the Nansha Automobile Port of Guangzhou Port and Luohu Port in Shenzhen.

Mr Chan will return to Hong Kong tomorrow (March 28).
