

Data collection on external wall systems: letter to local authorities

This letter from Neil O'Connor (Director, Building Safety Programme) asks local authorities to undertake a data collection exercise on the buildings in their area. The purpose of the data collection is to gather information on the external wall systems used on high rise residential buildings.