

Debbie Abrahams comments on CAB report on workplace pension schemes

Debbie

Abrahams MP, Labour's Shadow Work and Pensions Secretary, commenting on the findings of the Citizens Advice Bureau report, said:

"It is shocking to see that hundreds of thousands of low income workers, most of whom are women, are being blocked from these workplace pension schemes by the Tory Government.

"This month Labour demanded the Government look at how people working multiple jobs could be allowed to save. They refused."

"While the Tories abandon older people, Labour wants to ensure that everyone can have the secure, dignified retirement that they deserve."
