

Defence accommodation set to improve through new strategy

Serving personnel and their families will be better supported through the Defence Accommodation Strategy that will prioritise needs over military ranks.