

Defence Minister visits military families benefitting from newly refurbished homes at Catterick

Over 80 service family homes are being refurbished for soldiers and their families in Catterick.