

Delegation of Permanent Secretaries and Heads of Department led by SCS proceeds to visit Hangzhou (with photos)

The delegation of Permanent Secretaries and Heads of Department of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region Government led by the Secretary for the Civil Service, Mr Joshua Law, concluded the national studies course and visit programme in Beijing and departed for Hangzhou this morning (November 22) for a study tour to learn about the experience of the Zhejiang Provincial Government in promoting innovation and technology as well as developing a smart city there.

After arrival in Hangzhou, the delegation visited the Public Service Center to learn about the Zhejiang Provincial Government's "At Most One Visit" project in providing one-stop public service.

The delegation also met and exchanged views with leaders of Zhejiang Province and officials of the Hangzhou Municipal Bureau of Data Resources.

Tomorrow (November 23), the delegation will visit the Alibaba Group, the University of Hong Kong Zhejiang Institute of Research and Innovation, and Bainiu Village to learn more about the innovation and technology as well as e-commerce development there.

The delegation will conclude the visit and return to Hong Kong on November 24.
