

Detailed guide: General licences and authorisations to import live animals or animal products

Licences you need to import genetic material, research and diagnostic samples, trade samples and display items, and some live animals and animal products.