Developing AI skills

GAD is working with an AI partner to investigate fine tuning a large language model to perform quality assurance checks on pension administrator calculations.