

Developing components for smart energy systems: apply for funding

Businesses can apply for a share of £3 million to develop important technology components that improve the efficiency of local energy systems.