

Development Minister calls for peace and security in Middle East, announcing new aid for Gaza on first trip to region

International Development Minister Anneliese Dodds will pledge new UK aid and meet key Jordanian Ministers in her first official visit to the Middle East.