

Development Minister calls for urgent humanitarian action for crisis-hit South Sudan, announcing life-saving support package on first Africa trip

The Minister for Development, Anneliese Dodds visited South Sudan where she announced a package of support.