

Devon residents urged to check who is taking their green waste

Green waste from around the county tends to be fly-tipped near Plymouth at this time of year.