

Digital defence transformation boosted by £150 million UK contract

Digital services across Defence will be transformed in a £150 million contract awarded to UK-based technology services provider, Computacenter.