

Directors from Halifax ordered to pay more than £180k after setting up company while banned

Two directors of an industrial laundry installation firm who set up a 'phoenix' company while disqualified from running a business have been fined a total of £182,700.