

Disadvantaged young people to enjoy more outdoor experiences away from home

Thousands of disadvantaged young people are to get access to outdoor learning opportunities away from home so they can develop vital life skills, build confidence and resilience.