

Driving complacency: 74% of drivers would risk life in flood water

With further wet weather expected, Environment Agency and the AA urge drivers to stay away from flood water this winter.