Friends of the University of Dundee Botanic Garden

Talk – Sunday 4th March – the history of the area around the Botanic Garden

Keith Walker, an expert on Dundee's local history, will talk about Will's Braes and the lands around the Botanic Garden.

Keith has spent his life researching Dundee's history, has contributed frequently to the Craigie Column and conducts research for the City Archives and local history specialists.

The talk is in the Education Centre in the Botanic Garden at 2pm.
