

Earley BBQ

On Saturday evening it was good to join local members of the Conservative party for a BBQ in Earley. There was a good range of questions about the pandemic, vaccinations, economic recovery, housing and planning. I also talked a bit about levelling up and ways of getting the NHS back to full running for non covid treatments.