

Earlier mental health support announced for thousands nationwide

The government has announced almost £5 million to fund 'Early Support Hubs' nationwide to deliver mental health support for children and young people