

Early closure of Smart Identity Card Replacement Centres

The Immigration Department (ImmD) announced today (October 9) that as public transport services have been affected, all nine Smart Identity Card Replacement Centres of the ImmD will be closed at 7pm. Members of the public who have appointments for today may proceed to the Smart Identity Card Replacement Centres at an earlier time today or on later days for identity card replacement and they need not make another appointment. For enquiries, please contact the relevant Smart Identity Card Replacement Centre during working hours.
