

East Anglia benefits from Fisheries Improvement Fund

The Environment Agency last year invested over £955,000 in 232 projects to improve fishing in local communities through the Fisheries Improvement Programme.