

East of England to benefit from £6.5 billion transport investment

Multibillion-pound plan to improve connectivity across the country includes funding to double passenger services from Ely to King's Lynn and Ipswich to Peterborough.