

EDB announces schooling arrangements for tomorrow and tonight

The Hong Kong Observatory (HKO) will issue Tropical Cyclone Warning Signal No. 8 at 11:10pm tonight (November 13), and will remain in force at least until 10am tomorrow (November 14). Classes of all AM and whole-day schools, including secondary schools, primary schools, schools for children with physical disability, schools for children with intellectual disability, kindergartens, and kindergartens-cum-child care centres, will be suspended tomorrow. The schooling arrangement for PM primary and secondary schools, and evening schools will be announced tomorrow.

Meanwhile, when the HKO issues Pre-no.8 Special Announcement later, classes of all schools will be suspended tonight. Schools should implement contingency measures to ensure the safety of students. They should ensure that conditions are safe before allowing students to return home.
