

EDB clarification

In response to an online circulation of a "press release" which stated that classes of all schools in the territory will remain suspended tomorrow (November 20), a spokesman for the Education Bureau (EDB) clarified that the so-called "press release" was entirely a fabrication. The bureau condemned such an act and called on members of the public to pay attention to the formal announcement to be issued by the EDB later.