

Education secretary approves Dyson STEAM donation

£6 million donation for advanced facilities at Wiltshire primary school accepted by department for education, as education secretary approves school expansion.