

Eleven years of bankruptcy restrictions for former electrician who abused covid loan scheme

Surrey-based electrician claimed £45,000 from the covid business support scheme although he had stopped being self-employed four years earlier