

Eligible people urged to get vaccinated as flu cases rise

This week's UKHSA surveillance data shows the sharpest weekly increase in flu activity so far this winter, signalling flu season is officially underway.