

Elmwood students flying high in new careers

Former Animal Care students from Scotland's Rural College are flying high in their new careers after completing courses at the Elmwood campus in Fife.