

Employers back Government and Crisis homelessness pledge

More than 160 businesses have registered their interest in joining the Government's drive to help prevent and end homelessness, starting in the workplace.