

Enabling civil society through national action plans

OGP is a multilateral initiative bringing together almost 80 governments worldwide – including 21 EU Member States.

It aims to promote transparency, empower citizens, fight corruption, and harness new technologies to strengthen governance.

The meeting took place in Berlin on 26 February.