

End to Civil Service expansion and review of equality and diversity spending announced in productivity drive

The Chancellor has today, 2 October 2023, announced an immediate cap on civil servant headcount across Whitehall to stop any further expansion, increase efficiencies and boost productivity.