

Engage our youth to shape Europe's future

From climate change to social injustice, many young people are mobilising to bring about change.

On International Youth Day on 12 August, FRA calls on the EU and its Member States to build on this momentum to engage and work with young people across Europe.