

Engaging learners with page-turners

Students and teachers at Po Leung Kuk HK Taoist Association Yuen Yuen Primary School dressed up as their favourite literary characters to discover the joys of reading.

News.gov.hk interviewed the students and the school's principal to see how they are fostering a strong reading culture.

The story appears on news.gov.hk today (August 5) in text and video format.