

England to return to pre-pandemic system for early abortions

The approval allowing women to take both pills for early medical abortion at home will return to pre-pandemic arrangements at midnight on 29 August